

Swiss Club of Washington, D.C.

September 2021 Postillion

President's Message

Gruezi, hello, bonjour and salute,

It was great to see everyone on August 1st at the Swiss Bakery in Springfield Virginia. There were well over 1,000 people in attendance! The entertainment was terrific with six alphorns, the 22nd Battalion Grey Coats Fife and Drum Corps, the Alte Kameraden band, cow bells and a short speech by Christoph Sommer, the embassy representative. We even had a short visit by Jessica Lutz, the bronze medal Swiss hockey player from the Sochi games.

We hope to continue gathering in person following the COVID protocols. Stay tuned for dates and venues for Raclette, Grittibänz and Samichlaus.

Hope you enjoy the waning days of summer.

Stay safe and be well,
Lynn Feldpausch Zipf

What a wonderful Swiss National Day!

This year, the Swiss community of greater Washington, DC, hosted a different kind of Swiss National Day celebration. Together, the Swiss Benevolent Society, the Swiss Bakery and the Swiss Club of Washington, DC, hosted an event that celebrated our shared Swiss heritage and benefitted those in our community who need it most. Over $6000 was raised to benefit the Swiss Benevolent Society, which will be used to help local Swiss residents in need. Thank you to everyone who volunteered, celebrated with us, or who just happened to stop by the event. You can see photos of the event, with many familiar faces, on the Swiss Club website.
